The "Torch" Yearbook has been capturing the moments and memories of the students of East Bridgewater High School for over thirty years. Be it a candid at a locker, a picture from the prom, or an action shot playing soccer, these images help capture the moments that will last forever in our minds. The time and effort put forth by the staff, our computer specialists and especially our advisor Mr. Nick Paone, have helped to create and perfect this year's book. As this is the last year of the millenium, we wanted to make this yearbook unique for the Seniors. We hope that this yearbook commemorates the events of EBHS during our years. This is our special way of "Ending the Millenium."

Sincerely,
The "Torch" Staff

Maturity in an older man is expected.
Maturity in a younger man is an exception.

To an exceptional son, "I'm proud of you, Justin!"

Love,
Dad

Mitch,

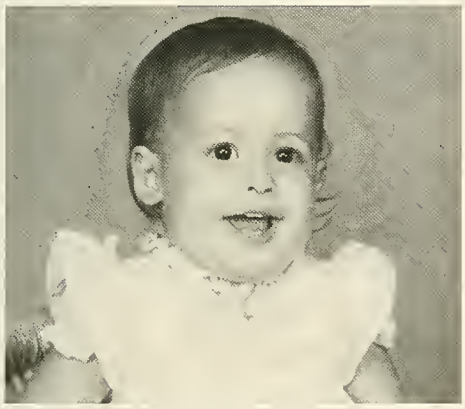
We are very blessed to have you as a daughter and sister and are proud of all of your accomplishments.

Your never-ending smile is just the window to your inner beauty, strength, determination and independence.

Never lose your enthusiasm for life, and wherever life takes you, always know we will be here for you.

Love,

Mom, Dad & Chris



Congratulations, Suzanne!

Best wishes and may all your dreams come true.
Even though you "want to live at home forever."

Love always,
Dad, Mom & Philip

Ashley,

Always believe that "miracles" come true - we know because of you.

All our love,
Mom and Dad

Jay,

This is just one of the many achievements that you have made, and we are all very proud of you. Keep making the right choices, and your future goals are right there at your fingertips. Keep reaching, and remember, we're always right here for you.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Shannon,
Erin & Mike

Sarah,

You have made my life worth living.
You are the wind beneath my wings.
Thank you! Best of luck in all you do.

Love you always,
Mom, Dad, Erin,
Elise, Samantha & Kyle

Brianna,

Blue eyes and blonde hair
And a warm sweet smile,
Our "child of the sixties"
Has her own unique style.

Searching for her place in life,
Feeling lost and misunderstood,
She has found within herself
The "Breezy" we always knew she would.

We are so very proud of
The special person she's becoming.
We'll be here for her always
With support and all our loving.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Clay and Rikki Lee

P. Billy Rowe

Aim high
do the right thing!

With lots of love,
Dad, Mom, Tim &
Ben

Judging from your past, we know for a fact that your future will be bright and that whatever you desire will be yours. Just watch out for fences jumping out at you.

All our love always,
Mom, Dad, Moo and Poo-Bear
